

Certified Production Technician

Chattahoochee Valley Community College is excited to offer Manufacturing Skill Standards Council (MSSC) credentials in the area of Certified Production Technician (CPT). This national credential covers core competency areas that are industry-led and nationally validated.

Features

- Certified instructor with years of experience
- Classes are held on a rotating basis every 8 weeks
- Classes are a combination of classroom and online learning
- Successful completers are nationally recognized by MSSC as a Certified Production Technician
- A certificate is awarded with the successful completion of each section of the curriculum
- OSHA 10-hour Safety Card training is available (additional hours required)
- 140 hours of continuing education training
- Free National Career Readiness Certificate through Ready to Work (additional hours required)

Valuable Training

- MSSC-CPT prep classes
- OSHA 10 Safety available*
- National Career Readiness Certificate*

*Additional training hours required; additional fees apply

To enroll or find out dates and times contact:

Dr. Shirley Armstrong
Associate Dean for Workforce and Technical Education
334.291.4964 or shirley.armstrong@cv.edu

Nanyail Smoke
Administrative Assistant
334.214.4867 or nanyail.smoke@cv.edu

CPT Curriculum

Training provided in critical manufacturing functions common to all sectors of the industry:

- Safety
- Quality practices and measurement
- MFG processes and production
- Maintenance Awareness

67 Modules / 60 Classroom Hours / 80 Online Hours

Visit www.almssc.com for more information

To enroll or find out dates and times contact:

Dr. Shirley Armstrong
Associate Dean for Workforce and Technical Education
334.291.4964 or shirley.armstrong@cv.edu

Nanyail Smoke
Administrative Assistant
334.214.4867 or nanyail.smoke@cv.edu

