CVCC Foundation Scholarship Requirements

A CVCC Foundation Scholarship recipient will agree to participate in the following:

- CVCC Foundation photo shoot
Photos with article will be posted on CVCC's Website, released to the local Media, and used for promotional items for the Foundation.
- CVCC Foundation video shoot
CVCC Foundation Videos are short clips of scholarship students' testimonials. Videos will be posted on CVCC's Website and shown at events to promote the mission of the CVCC Foundation.
- Attend and possibly speak briefly at Alumni and Foundation events
The Foundation hosts different events to raise scholarship funds and awareness of the College. At times, a scholarship student will be asked to speak during the program at an event.

The student must not drop or fail a class during a semester. If the student does not complete the semester, withdraws, or drops a class, the student will be expected to refund the Foundation for any scholarship award monies received, unless there is evidence of extenuating circumstances. You must put your request in writing and attach any documentation, which would excuse you from repayment. This information should be submitted to the Foundation. Such request must be turned into the Financial Aid Office. You will receive notification by mail regarding the decision of the committee.
