Message from the President

Greetings on behalf of the Chattahoochee Valley Community College (CVCC) Family!

CVCC is proud to present its 2017-2022 Fact Book, which is a statistical compilation of information on our product of work over a five-year period. To say the least, during the 2020-2021 academic year, COVID-19 impacted our College in ways that we were unable to foresee. That impact has continued through the 2021-2022. Much of that impact is reflected in our enrollment and student outcomes. We were faced with many challenges; however, CVCC remains a jewel in this community and an excellent educational resource for the citizens in the Chattahoochee Valley region.

To fulfill our mission, we offer adult education, workforce development, academic transfer preparation, and career and technical educational training. Whether our students are returning to our College or enrolling with us for the first time, we have addressed their needs with vigor. Our goal is to be as transparent, accessible, and resourceful as possible to both internal and external stakeholders. We share the information contained in this Fact Book with transparency and a desire to provide a better service to our constituents in mind. This information provides a framework for improvement to meet the everchanging needs of our students and the community at large.

We are committed to excellence in customer service as well as educational delivery. The College has positioned itself to engage students in the classroom and empower them by being willing and eager participants in their educational pursuits. We are preparing students to enter the labor market, advance to four-year colleges and universities, become leaders and providers for their families, and be responsible citizens in the community. We take our jobs as educational leaders very seriously, and we are dedicated to providing the best possible service to the citizens of this area. We hope this Fact Book offers insight on the challenges, opportunities, and accomplishments of the College and provides a better understanding of our value to this community.

Thank you for your review of this Fact Book and for your support of the College!

Jacqueline B. Screws
President

History

Chattahoochee Valley Community College was established by an act of the Alabama Legislature during its 1973 legislative session. Located in Phenix City, Alabama, CVCC serves the citizens of Phenix City, Russell County, and parts of Bullock, Lee, Macon and Barbour counties. Its primary service area is Russell County, the eastern one-third of Macon County and the southeastern corner of Lee County. It also provides a variety of educational opportunities for the citizens of the Fort Benning - Columbus, Georgia metropolitan area.

CVCC opened in January of 1974 and initially used temporary facilities located throughout Phenix City. CVCC first occupied its present permanent location in 1976. Its campus contains approximately 120 acres upon which are located twelve permanent buildings: an instructional and performing arts center, an administrative/classroom building, a general-purpose classroom building, a learning resources center, a fine arts building, a health and physical education building/gymnasium, an athletic complex, a student services center, an industry training center and a security building. In 2020, the College acquired the Adams Building from Troy University for the purpose of developing a one-stop student center and instructional facility (noted in the description above). In 2022, the campus was expanded with three additional Troy State University buildings being added – a bookstore, a maintenance building, and Pitts Hall, which will be designated as the Workforce Training Center.

During its history, CVCC has had six permanent presidents. Its current President is Ms. Jacqueline Screws, who began her tenure on February 1, 2018.
